Laugh Like You've Never Laughed Before

Professional Comedy Hypnotist & Motivational Entertainer

"After I watched a hypnosis show for the first time, I knew without a doubt that I needed to learn how to do that!" And, he did! Kevin went straight to work and apprenticed under Curtis Raw for a year, travelling around Northern Alberta to the likes of Grand Cache, Slave Lake, Barrhead, and Whitecourt.

Wayne Lee's Stage Show Academy in Edmonton was when Kevin felt he took a serious step forward and learned from one of the best in the business. He graduated from the program in 2013. He then started hypnotizing Engineering Students from work putting on little Hypno-parties set up in their homes.

He felt his career began to take off after performing at a graduating class in Whitecourt, Alberta. From that point he has gone on to perform at Christmas Parties, Anniversary parties, and fundraisers. His pride was being able to donate a show to the Barrhead Baseball team where they raised 700$ to go towards the boys team trip to Cuba.

He's volunteered time to work with the Onaway Eagles midget hockey team. Helping get in the right pre game mind set. Much to the parents and kids delight, helping them play better than they previously realised that they could!

Kevin is also a certified hypnotherapist since 2015 and has helped people lose weight, quit smoking and build more self-confidence.

Weaving his skillsets into his shows, Kevin delivers a hilarious mix of the unexpected, surprising human flair and spectacular emotional empowerment into every show. His clients rave that they Laugh Like They've Never Laughed Before, and that they can't wait to have him back again!

He absolutely loves what he does and he loves being able to give back to the community, and to making the world a better happier place to live.

Please feel free to ask any questions, make any comments and voice any concerns, and of course, book Kevin!
